CHAIR PHYLLIS J. RANDALL NEWSLETTER

Hello, Loudoun

I hope everyone had a relaxing and enjoyable Thanksgiving holiday. Thank you for attending the Envision Loudoun workshops in November. If you were not able to attend in November, there is one more workshop on Thursday, December 8 at the Cascades Senior Center, 21060 Whitfield Place in Sterling from 7:00 to 8:30 pm. Your input is very important to me and will inform Phase I of the New Comprehensive Plan development. Visit <http://envision-loudoun.org> to sign up for e-mail updates and learn more.

I hosted my first Community Forum on November 7, the topic was teen suicide prevention. I want to thank the moderator Neil McNerney and the panelists. The Loudoun County Community Services Board (CSB) is working with a smaller group of community members (teens and parents) to identify gaps in approaches to prevention and help fill them. The CSB is discussing next steps from the community forum including an online and print resource guide.

On November 1, the Board approved the Vision and Strategic Focus Areas from the Strategic Planning Retreat on September 16 and directed staff to develop a workplan to achieve the outcomes by December 31, 2019. I moved that we add the word 'learn' to the Vision Statement. This is an important word because we learn everyday, not just in formal education. I believe that we are correcting an oversight in the Vision Statement by adding the word 'learn.' I also accepted Supervisor Buffington's friendly amendment to change the language under the New Comprehensive Plan Outcomes to seek a balance between preserving rural areas (rural and transition policy areas) and revitalizing other areas (suburban policy area). Residents are concerned about the rural and transition policy areas and I support protecting these areas.

On November 29, the Board of Supervisors held a special meeting to discuss 11 decision points on the Silver Line Comprehensive Plan Amendment (CPAM). The goals of this CPAM are to: promote desirable land use patterns, maximize employment opportunities around metrorail, maximize tax revenue to pay for the costs of metrorail and support a transportation system that moves residents to and from metrorail. The Board voted to reaffirm the County's Policy and Zoning Ordinance requirements to not allow residential uses inside the Ldn 65 noise contours of the Airport Impact Overlay District. I initially supported residential development at the 606 metro station. There were many numbers and studies that were presented by the airport. In the end, I decided to use common sense. If I am sitting in the 65 Ldn and 40 planes fly overhead, this makes a difference to me. It is common sense that residents would not want to live where 35 to 40 planes fly a day. I also asked staff to determine how much area is in the Broad Run Floodplain between the metro stations for a potential passive park. I want to keep the natural environment that is in the community and protect endangered species like the wood turtle. The Board forwarded the Silver Line CPAM and Countywide Transportation Plan to the Planning Commission as amended for their action and deliberation.

The last Board of Supervisors Public Hearing for the year will be Wednesday, December 14 at 6:00 pm. The Board business meeting on December 22 will be cancelled. I hope everyone has a stress-free and cheerful December.

The first Fantasy Flight occurred in 1989 when United Airlines and Children's Hospice International partnered to provide kids and their families with an amazing experience. Christmas in Middleburg

On December 3, Chair Randall was in the 2016 Christmas in Middleburg parade. The band from John Champe High School played excellent Christmas music to set the scene and students from Mercer Middle School and Middleburg Charter School helped hand out candy and carry the banner. A special thank you to the talented students from Monroe Technology Center for making her banner. This day-long event is popular with the Chinese delegation as pictures from the procession of the Middleburg Hunt and hounds down Washington Street are currently featured in the Beijing airport.
